Cookies Policy

Important Notice: this policy explains how cookies are used on our website. The policy may be amended from time to time. When we do, we will let you know by appropriate means such by posting the revised policy on the page with a new "Last Updated" date.

What are cookies?

Cookies are small, simple text files downloaded to your computer, tablet, smartphone or other device when a user visits an internet-facing application. Cookies are mainly used to identify users when they return back to a previously visited internet-facing application to remember their login information and behavior.

Our use of cookies

We use cookies on our website to improve our users' navigation experience. This can include which pages they have visited, choices they have made from menus, any specific information they have entered into forms and the time and date of their visit.

It is important to highlight that the cookies we use do not store sensitive or personal information. However, as per the new GDPR regulation, we need your consent before using cookies. Actually, you can choose to refuse the cookies at any time; but in this case, our website may not function properly.

Type of cookies

There are different types of cookies that we use on our website:

- Necessary cookies that are basic cookies that ensure the website work properly, for example by controlling the way it is displayed on your computer or tablet, smartphone or other device. Our website doesn't function properly without these cookies.
- Preferences cookies that are Personal cookies that save preferences such as the language you choose to use.
- Statistics cookies that are third party cookies, are set by other content providers outside of BOGHOS SAL and are used to analyze your use of their content. Google is one example.

You can select the cookie you prefer, but if you select all, our website will provide you the best user experience. Customize Cookies
